"Meet Me in Oklahoma"

This is the title of a new song just out with words composed by Dominic Antonelli of Alderson and set to music by Samuel H. Peck. This song has been sung with great success by Roy Varley of this city and whose picture adorns the title page. If you have not secured a copy do so at once. For sale by all music dealers.

Elks and Boosters Again.

The Elks and Boosters will "scrap" it out again at League Park in McAlester next Sunday at 4 o'clock. These two teams have met twice this season—each winning a game, and this deciding game will be for blood. A good game is guaranteed by both managers. Ben Barry and Lynn Boyd both of this city will be seen in the Elks' line-up, which alone is worth the price of admission.

Watch the Coal trust buy up every newspaper in the state that it is possible for them to influence with money, during the next 30 days in order to help them blind the voters now voting against the recall of Sec. 18. Do not be deceived by any one. This is a fight that is being put up by the miners of this state themselves against the Coal Trusts, but is in the interest of the whole people of the state, so do not fail to help us by voting "YES."

Paul Nesbitt Will Debate.

Arrangement have been made to have Paul Nesbitt the brilliant democratic orator of McAlester to meet and discuss questions with the socialist speakers at the big celebration here on next Wednesday.

We know nothing of the ability of the socialists speakers for this meeting, but we do know Paul Nesbitt—one of Oklahoma's best orators, a man that ranks A1 on the discussion of vital questions of the day and can hand it to you "right off the bat." In other words Paul is there with the "big mit" and "raring to go."

Mitchell Coming.

Word has been received by Secretary Fred W. Holt of the U. M. W. that John Mitchell, ex-president of the U. M. W. of America that he will make a tour of the state prior to the election Aug. 5th in the interest of the mining laws of the state. Mr. Holt also informs us that Lieut. Gov. Wm. Green of Ohio will also make several speeches throughout the state before Aug. 5th making his headquarters at McAlester.

Shoot Was a Big Success

On Sunday, July 6th the Krebs Gun Club held a most interesting shoot, attended by sportsmen from all along the interurban.
